

Finance Associate

Position Summary

Cardinal Midstream III, LLC (“Cardinal”) is currently seeking to add a Corporate Finance Associate to the Dallas office. Cardinal's Iron Horse Midstream system is a portfolio company of EnCap Flatrock and NGP and supported by a $1 billion equity commitment. The candidate will be expected to interact directly with management of client E&P companies, commercial banks, outside counsel and Cardinal's private equity sponsor. This position will report directly to the Chief Financial Officer.

Qualifications

- Solid academic credentials
- Preferably 2-3 years of investment banking or comparable experience
- Expected to be highly proficient in Microsoft Excel and PowerPoint
- Strong references

Responsibilities

- Maintain the company financial model
- Analysis of business development opportunities (acquisitions, divestitures, etc.)
- Preparation of monthly financial reporting package
- Interacting and communicating with private equity sponsor in regard to asset status, economic analyses, customer activity and capital structuring
- Preparation of board presentations and analysis
- Preparing and assisting in presentations for financing proposals and new business development
- Financial analysis, evaluation and forecasting of contracts and potential contracts with producers
- Performing individual company, market and basin research
- Monitoring M&A market, customer and competitor activity
- Assisting with gas settlement and producer performance analyses